Rochester Pageant

Everyone is invited to see a romantic page from Rochester's history come to life, on the green in back of the Rochester Woman's Club, as a cast of local actors and singers present "One Crow, Sorrow".

Written by Judith Gurney, and directed by Nancylee Gaucher, the story begins in 1680, one year after Rochester was founded, and the founders of Rochester, Sam Briggs, John Hammond, Joseph Doty, James Stewart, William Sherman, and the widow Ellis, are all represented, with their families.

Charles Tate of Mattapoisett plays the Indian, Will Connet, who is the focal point of the story. The real Will Connet was made an original proprietor when he stubbornly refused to give up his lands, and he lived among the whites. Some of the problems he must have encountered form one of the story lines.

Music written for the play will be introduced, as well as some old favorite songs from the past.

The Pageant will begin at 8:00 P.M. on two Sunday evenings, the 22nd and 29th of July. Seating on the grass will be on blankets, lawnchairs, or whatever the guests care to bring...a few benches are available, but some will be reserved for invited dignitaries.

Young children are welcome, but absolutely MUST be well supervised.

Both performances are free to the public. In the event of rain, the Pageant will be moved into the Woman's Club building, which will limit the audience capacity.

All of the characters in the Pageant are as authentic as research can make them, with the one exception of a comic character, introduced simply for the fun. Included in the cast are Sandra Brown, Chris Gaucher, Gary Sylvia, George Bare, James Gurney, Karen Chase, Sharon Hartley, Michael Sylvia, Mary-Evelyn Sylvia,

FIREMEN'S MOTORCADE AND MUSTER

Having been rained out on July 1st, the Firemen's Motorcade and Muster will be held on Sunday, July 15th. At 10 A.M. a huge motorcade will leave the Memorial School on Pine Street. Fire and Emergency Vehicles from as many as 26 towns will proceed throughout all of Rochester, with sirens and bells, inviting everyone to join the motorcade, and follow it back to the school, where, at 1 P.M., those firemen will present a fun and competitive Muster. There will be four events, which are exciting, fun, and highly competitive. Trophies are the prizes, and there will be a raffle drawing for a Ten Speed Bicyle, and food will be available for the spectators.

The parade route is as follows: from the Memorial School to Hartley Road to Cushman Road, to New Bedford Road, to the center, Mary's Pond Road to Walnut Plain Road, to Sippican Estates, to Burgess Avenue, to Neck Road, to North Avenue, to Snipatuit Road, to Pine Street, back to the school.

Anyone wishing the sirens not to be used near their home is asked to call 763-5307.

PARADE - JULY 22

July 22, of course, is the big day, with a parade that promises at least 114 units starting at 1 P.M. In the evening, the pageant will be held. The Rochester

PLATES ON EXHIBIT AT HISTORICAL MUSEUM

The Mattapoisett Historical Society Museum will be open Tuesday through Saturday 2-4 P.M. until August 31.

Old Staffordshire and Wedgewood commemorative and pictorial plates are featured for the month of July. These plates show historic events, battle scenes, and buildings to make us mindful of this country's past triumphs in this 300th birthday year of "Old Rochester". In addition, a charming display of children's fancy dresses, coats and christening gowns done in intricate cut work embroidery will be shown from the Museum's collection during the summer.

The August show will exhibit early toys, porcelain dolls, fine miniature furniture and children's furniture. The society welcomes loans from the community to make these exhibits more interesting and informative. Please call the Museum during open hours or any of the following officers:

A Marion resident, he is a self-taught painter who has been interested in art since he was a child. He paints now as a hobby, flying on painting and sketching trips to Provincetown, Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket, and even as far as Bermuda and Guadelupe.

Marion lives in Ithaca, New York, and teaches elementary school. Her style and media are quite varied. She has had several shows of her work in Ithaca and Cleveland. Pastels, ink drawings, watercolors and acrylics will be included in this show.

Once again we learn of our students and alumni being asked to submit biographical data for inclusion in one or more publications purporting to recognize distinction or superior achievement in some area. All of these notices of "selection" are accompanied by an offer to sell a copy of the book for inclusion in the personal library of the student.

We urge that students and parents carefully consider what, if any, advantage may accrue from such listing. A student who receives such a solicitation may wish to consult with a guidance counsellor to discuss what benefits have been reported to arise from being listed in any such publication.

AFS Farewell

The Old Rochester AFS Club hosted 38 AFS students and their families from the Cape, Rhode Island and the Boston area as the AFSers departed on the first leg of their trip back to their own countries.

Many thanks to Cumberland Farms, The Galley, and the Ansel Gurney House for the delicious contributions to our hosting effort. The coffee, donuts, and muffins "hit the spot" at 7:30 A.M. as the AFSers and their American families waited for the bus to leave.

Thank you again to all who helped make our send-off the success that it was.

ALL-WHALE WORKSHOP

An All-Whale workshop for ages 5 and up will be held at the Children's Museum in Russells Mills on August 16th from 10 to 1.

The children will explore the whale from one end to the other, learning basic anatomy, identification, the whale's specialized abilities and habits, and its unique personality that has made it the most popular resident of the ocean, and enabled it to survive from ancient times. This thorough workshop will be an exciting adventure into the world of the whale. Children will listen to whale songs and communications and will participate in actively expressing and learning the movements of the whale and the ocean. Special artifacts, stories and legends, and factual instruction will all be part of the workshop. The children will symbolically become whales and creatively express their feelings on whales, and hopefully come away with a new appreciation, awareness, and affection for this favorite monster of the deep. Sack lunch and pre-registration are necessary. There will be a charge for the workshop.

setts Easter Seal Society's annual Softball Marathon scheduled for the weekend of July 28 and July 29.

Sponsored by WBSM, the marathon is expected to draw some 40 teams in competition. The teams will compete in successive two-hour games at Brooklawn Park, according to Dave DeRosier, Publicity Chairman, and Carl Sylvia and Nick Nanopoulos, marathon co-chairmen.

To register to play, team managers are urged to contact the Easter Seal Society, 227 Union Street, New Bedford. Each team is expected to raise $100.00 to cover the entry fee and will be matched against opponents of comparable skill. All teams will receive two cases of beer following their contest with the winner being awarded a trophy. Teams which raise $200.00 or more will be presented with appropriate T-shirts.

This marks the second year in which the Massachusetts Easter Seal Society has conducted the marathon. Last year, more than $75,000 was raised to support the work of the Society on behalf of the physically disabled public. Altogether the marathon will be conducted in a dozen communities throughout the state. Boston Red Sox infielder Jerry Remy serves as state chairman.

ORRHS ACKNOWLEDGES GIFT

Old Rochester Regional High School gratefully acknowledges receipt of a gift of fifteen hundred dollars. This donation, from relatives in England, was made in memory of the late W. John Howard, M.D., Fellow of the American Psychiatric Association.

Born in London, Dr. Howard was educated at the Dame Alice Owen School and earned his doctor of medicine degree at London University and Guy's Hospital in 1939.

In 1948, Dr. Howard and his wife moved to the United States where he continued for a term in the practice of psychiatry. Following further study in the United States, Dr. Howard was admitted as a Fellow of the American Psychiatric Association and was certified to practice medicine in New York, New Hampshire and Vermont.

After seventeen years of private practice in New Bedford, during which time he was on the staff of St. Luke's Hospital and other local hospitals, Dr. Howard joined the staff of the Veterans' Hospital in Brockton, where he served until the time of his death on December 31, 1978.

The selection of the recipient was made by the faculty scholarship committee of

MAGAZINE COLLECTION DONATED TO SMU

Mr. and Mrs. H. Armand Brodeur of Fall River have donated a 25-year collection of Opera News magazine to Southeastern Massachusetts University.

The collection, which was donated to the University through the SMU Foundation, will be kept in the music reference library on the second floor of the Visual and Performing Arts Building.

Professor Eleanor Carlson, chairperson of the music department, says the collection will make 25 years of opera history available to students. Previously, the school's library had only a ten-year collection of the magazine.

The magazine is published weekly during the 16-week Metropolitan Opera season. It chronicles the lives and careers of the Metropolitan's greatest talents and provides background on each of Saturday's selected operas.

The Brodeurs put more than 400 issues in binders for SMU, and Mrs. Brodeur catalogued the collection alphabetically.

"Old Clocks"

PROGRAM ON CLOCKS

Keeping track of time while on vacation might not be appealing! But, finding out more about time-pieces that tick off these long-awaited intervals away from our work-a-day routine can make for a fascinating evening! With this in mind, the Westport Historical Society invites members and guests to a program about clocks on Thursday evening at 8 P.M. on July 19th.

Guest speaker Francis C. Rowland will give an illustrated talk entitled: "Faces in Time - Let's Talk About Old Clocks". The program will be held at Pacific Union Congregational Church, 526 Old County Road, at the Head of Westport. There will be an admission charge for non-members. Refreshments will be served following the program.

Mr. Rowland is a retired mechanical engineer and was the founding president of the Mattapoisett Historical Society. His talk is developed around his life-long interest in repairing and restoring old clocks. He will tell of the history of clocks, followed by a non-technical discussion of the things the average person can do to maintain an old clock. In a color slide presentation, Mr. Rowland will show types of old clocks that one might expect to see in this area. He will welcome questions from the audience, at the close of the talk.

Gift for Tobey

Once again the members of the Wareham Business and Professional Women's Club have donated gifts to Tobey Hospital as part of their civic participation program. Mrs. Corine Hambly, R.N. of Marion, chairman of the program, together with Mrs. Maureen Sylvia, club president, presented the nursing units of Tobey Hospital with an electric blender, a Mr. Coffee Maker, and a hair-styling blow dryer.

The organization, founded in 1962, presently has fifty-one members all of whom have been active in business or professions. The annual gifts to Tobey are part of their commitment to the community, a commitment which also provides yearly scholarship funds for local students.
